Information to have ready when you call

- ⇒ Insurance Card
- ⇒ Name of person who needs appointment
- ⇒ Social Security Number
- ⇒ Date of birth
- ⇒ Current address
- ⇒ Phone number(s)
- ⇒ Reason for appointment
- ⇒ Name and other contact information of legal guardian/parent if child is under 18

What to expect at your first appointment

- ⇒ You will meet with a trained professional (counselor, social worker, or psychologist) to gather information and allow you to tell your “story”.
- ⇒ This first appointment is usually called a “diagnostic assessment” .
- ⇒ Most likely, the professional will share services which can be provided to you and also discuss your mental health diagnosis, if needed.
- ⇒ These first appointments usually range from 1-2 hours long. Some agencies will have you arrive early before the appointment to complete intake paperwork.
